Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD!
Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore!
From the rising of the sun to its going down the LORD's name is to be praised.
The LORD is high above all nations, His glory above the heavens.
Who is like the LORD our God, Who dwells on high,
Who humbles Himself to behold the things that are in the heavens and in the earth?

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

To my Family of Sacred Heart (St. Paul) and St. Joseph/BOL Parishes,

EXTRAORDINARILY ORDINARY: Ordinary time. The Church uses this term to describe the periods of the Liturgical Year that lie outside of Advent, Lent and the Easter Season. The root of “ordinary,” as we use it in “Ordinary Time,” is from the Latin word, ordinalis. It refers to a sequence of numbers. You read in the header above: 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next week will be the 3rd Sunday and so forth. “Ordinary time” refers to this ordering of the weeks. Ordinary certainly doesn’t mean that God doesn’t work as actively during these days as in Lent or the Easter Season. In God’s grace, every moment is truly extraordinary. That is the absolute truth. We have a little less than two months of ordinary time until we enter Lent again on March 5. Let’s make these days extraordinary through our prayer and our love of others. Yes, the ordinary can be extraordinary!

OUR MORAL SHAME: This Wednesday, January 22, is the annual Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. This day is a commemoration, but certainly not a celebration. In any given year in the United States, there are hundreds of thousand preborn babies who die due to induced abortion. I strongly believe that this is our nation’s greatest moral shame. Unless we stop killing children in the womb, we will never get our other ills right. St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta once said: “The greatest destroyer of love and peace is abortion, which is war against the child. The mother doesn't learn to love, but kills to solve her own problems. Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching its people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want.” No doubt, many women who seek an abortion (often coerced by the child’s father or by family or by friends) are afraid. After having an abortion, so many women suffer from depression and other wounds of the heart. Please, pray for these suffering souls and offer them your love. Remember as well, that abortion is a very grave and serious sin. Nonetheless, God’s mercy is always greater than our sin. If you have had an abortion, encouraged a woman to procure an abortion, or paid for an abortion – please – go to confession and receive God’s mercy and forgiveness. For many, sacramental confession is the first step in a process of healing. Do not be afraid. Be forgiven and be healed! And on January 22, may we all pray (and maybe even fast, too) for a conversion of hearts, so that abortion may become unthinkable and unknown.

GET EXCITED: 2025 is a big year for our parishes and our Catholic community! Not only is the Universal Church celebrating the Jubilee Year of hope, but our Sacred Heart/St. Paul/St. Joseph Bread of Life Community family also has some wonderful things planned! In early March we will welcome a group of young people from the National Evangelization Team who are offering a retreat for our 6-8 grade students. Later in March, we will hold a Lenten Parish Mission in anticipation of the Solemnity of St. Joseph. In April, we will celebrate the Easter Triduum, welcome OCIA candidates into the Church, offer Divine Mercy Sunday devotions, and rejoice with our First Communicants and Confirmandi. The beautiful month of May will find us hosting a Mother-Daughter tea. In June – and this is really exciting – will be host our first annual Vacation Bible School for the young ones. If that isn’t enough for June, celebratory Masses and meals for the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart and the Solemnity of St. Paul will crown our month on back-to-back days! When August is upon, we have a special “Great Mass” planned. Then, looking all the way to November, we are inviting our high school students to attend the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indianapolis. Whooo! That’s a lot! Please get excited!

Praying that you have a beautiful week!

Sacred Heart of Jesus – Have mercy on us!

Mary, Mother of God – Pray for us!

Our Lady of Guadalupe – Pray for us!

St. Joseph – Pray for us!

St. Paul – Pray for us!

Fr. Steve

Refugee Resettlement and Bags of Hope

We have been moving household items and Bags of Hope clothing that were in the Sacred Heart School gym, that were unavailable to us because of the asbestos testing, down to St. Andrew's annex where we have been working out of for the last three months. Gaining access to these items has definitely increased our supply of these items. Thank you to everyone who donated items of need listed in last week's bulletin. We will pause collecting items for the time being as we seek to determine the total of what have in stock. Know that your past donations helped us through the month of December where we took a van load of winter clothing to the Community of Caring, the residential program for men and women, and serviced 18 refugee families along with Catholic Charities. So far, we have assisted 7 refugee families this month and 4 families are already scheduled to arrive in February. Thank you to everyone for your efforts to feed the hungry, cloth the naked and welcome the stranger in our community.

February 2, 2025: Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, Candlemas

The Mass for the Feast of the Presentation includes the blessing of candles for the coming year, thus the name, "Candlemas." This practice came about sometime in the fifth century. It wasn't originally connected to the Presentation, yet it seems fitting to align this rite with the Presentation of Jesus, the light of the world. Originally the blessing was for the candles to be used in church, but parishioners also bring candles to Mass that day to have them blessed.

For Catholics, Candlemas is also a moment to renew their commitment to following Christ. Just as Jesus was presented to God in the Temple, the faithful are invited to present themselves to God again, offering their lives in service and love. It is a time to remember the call to live as "children of the light," walking in faith and trust.

Candlemas is more than a feast day; it is an invitation to live by the light of Christ all year. The blessed candles are a reminder that each person is called to share this light with others. By following Jesus' teachings and bringing kindness, peace, and hope into the world, Catholics honor the meaning of Candlemas in their daily lives.

So, bring some candles to Mass on February 2 and have them blessed. These might be candles that you'll light during mealtimes, during morning or evening prayer time, or simply when you want to be reminded of Jesus, the light of the world.

Family Perspective

At Cana, we gain valuable insight into Mary's parenting style. She did not plead, argue, demand, or manipulate. Instead, she simply pointed out the situation and trusted her son to make the best decision.

Faith Formation

Clint Badowski

faithformation@stjoesbol.org

Meet the Catechist
Tim Laher
1st Grade

How long have you been a catechist and what grades have you taught?

I have been a catechist for two years, teaching 4th-5th grades last year and 1st grade currently. I have also been active working as a volunteer with Divine Mercy Encounter (DME) serving our teens, young adults and older adults since making DME a little over seven years ago.

What is something about our Faith that inspires you?

The Creed which is the essence of our faith in God as Catholics pretty much sums it all up: We are called by our Lord Jesus Christ to be one with Him as part of His Body—One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic—united to Him who is the Head.

What is your favorite part about being a catechist?

The greatest joy of working with our kids—whether they are 1st Graders, 5th Graders and even high school teens making their DME retreat—is simply this—just watching Jesus work marvelous deeds in their lives, drawing their hearts and minds to Himself and His infinite merciful love for them, becoming His saints as they grow in faith.

What is something about your faith you wish you knew sooner?

I wish to have known sooner than I do now is the how deep God's merciful love for each and everyone of us truly is. His merciful love for us, His children, is infinite. There is absolutely nothing that is more powerful, stronger and more uplifting than the merciful love of the Father that is ours in Christ Jesus, His Son. The meaning of that word infinite means that our appreciation of that merciful love just grows as we grow in Him.

If you could ask Jesus one question in person, what would it be?

One question... that question would probably be the one that the first two disciples asked Jesus: "Lord, show us where You stay and more of who You are." And His answer to you and me—even a billion years from now—would likely be the one Jesus gave them 2000 years ago: "Come and see."

Deacon Dabblings

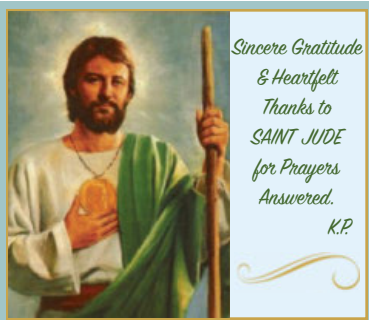

LET'S LIGHTEN UP

During the Advent and the Christmas season, most of the Deacon Dabblings lately have been on the more serious side. With the season now behind us and with the start of Ordinary Season in the Church calendar, I thought that it would be nice to lighten things up a bit. I came across some quips that I thought you might find entertaining.

- There is a fine line between a long sermon and a hostage situation.
- If my bank account can just touch the hem of his garment.
- Cheers to us who can sing wrong lyrics in hymns with confidence.
- Biblical scholars believe that Noah made 977 trips to Home Depot while building the ark.
- If you went to church this Christmas, there is a 99.9% chance of there being church again next Sunday. Go again!
- Something about rent being due Monday after Jesus paid all your debts doesn't sit right with me.
- I drive so badly that when I am driving, my GPS doesn't speak, it prays.
- To encourage our congregation to sit in the front pews, I have installed cell phone chargers in the first three rows.
- Jesus loves you, but I am his favorite.
- And just like that, Santa is gone until next year, but Jesus is still here with gifts that never end.
- At this point, I have ordered so much stuff from Amazon, I don't know what is happening anymore. If UPS shows up with a llama tomorrow, it is what it is.
- Lord, I need money to organize your birthday.
- I'm so single that when they ask for an emergency contact, I put down Jesus.
- If St. Paul saw the Church in America, we'd be getting a letter.
- Missing church is a misdemeanor, the more you miss, the meaner you get.
- Apparently, when you treat people the same way, they treat you, they get offended.
- You know you need to lose weight when you start to pray, and the Lord immediately shows up because he thought two or three people showed up in his name.
- Christmas was God with us, Easter was God for us, Pentecost is God in us.
- Me yelling at squirrels in the street so they don't get hit by a car and die is the same feeling that God has watching me live my life most days.
- Every family has secrets until a Sunday School teacher asks a group of kids if they have any prayer requests.
- Dear Lord, please let me crave only lettuce this week.
- She asked God to remove everything fake from her life. Now, she is baldheaded, has no eyebrows, and her handbag is gone. Parent: God, why don't my kids listen to me? God: lol

The highlighted lines are not only amusing but also food for thought.

Peace of Christ,
Deacon Tony
